

Exploring Argentina

EER students have recently visited Argentina for personal and professional reasons: during holiday breaks and for internships in Buenos Aires during the summer months. Visiting the southern glaciers is a contrast to life in Austin, and a chance of a lifetime.